

CAREER START

Broadcasting & Electronic Media

Career Start

PIKES PEAK COMMUNITY COLLEGE

This one-year collegiate program is designed to enter television production or radio broadcasting. College credit earned during Career Start is applicable towards the Associate of Applied Science degree at PPCC.

Career options include:

- Radio Announcer
- Scriptwriter for Video
- Television Camera Operator
- Television Director
- Radio Music Director
- Radio Program or Video Producer
- Television Reporter
- Videotape Editor
- Copywriter for Radio
- Disc Jockey

Desirable experience and training:

- Good verbal communication skills
- Keyboard skills
- Teamwork
- Strong reading and writing skills

Students successfully completing college credit opportunities of this Career Start program will earn credit toward certificates and/or an Associates of Applied Science (AAS) degree at PPCC. Here are examples of how credits apply to related PPCC certificates and degrees.

Associates of Applied Science Degree

Radio & Television

15 of 61 required credits

Certificate Opportunities

- Advanced Radio Production and Operations
9 of 32 required credits
- Advanced Television and Video Production
9 of 32 required credits
- Basic Radio Production
9 of 19 required credits
- Basic Television Production
6 of 9 required credits

COLLEGE CREDIT OPPORTUNITIES MAY INCLUDE:

- RTV 100 Intro to Electronic Media (3)
- RTV 101 Radio Programming & Production I (3)
- RTV 102 Beginning Television (3)
- RTV 103 Writing for TV & Radio (3)
- RTV 108 Principles of Audio (3)
- RTV 120 News & Sports Writing & Report (3)

For more information on Career Start, visit ppcc.edu/Career-Start,
or call 719.502.3111.

The courses listed may not be an all-inclusive list of college credit opportunities nor may all courses be offered each year.

Course descriptions, certificates, and degree options can be found in the PPCC Catalog. Students must meet course prerequisites. For more information, visit ppcc.edu.