

CAREER START

Construction

Career Start

PIKES PEAK COMMUNITY COLLEGE

This one-year collegiate program is designed to prepare high school students to apply technical knowledge and skills to residential and commercial building construction and remodeling.

Career options include:

- Carpenter
- Framer
- Construction Project Manager
- Construction Estimator
- Construction-Related Sales
- Building Inspector

Students successfully completing college credit opportunities of this Career Start program will earn credit toward certificates and/or an Associates of Applied Science (AAS) degree at PPCC. Here are examples of how credits apply to related PPCC certificates and degrees.

Desirable skills and aptitudes:

- Basic math
- Hand-eye coordination
- Interest in the building and construction trades

Associates of Applied Science Degree

Building & Construction Technology

33 of 70 required credits

Certificate Opportunities

- Building & Construction Fundamentals
17 of 17 required credits
- Building & Construction Carpentry I
7 of 7 required credits
- Building & Construction Carpentry II
8 of 8 required credits
- Building & Construction Advanced Applications
13 of 18 required credits

COLLEGE CREDIT OPPORTUNITIES MAY INCLUDE:

YEAR 1

- AEC 107 Print Reading Residential/ Commercial (3)
- CON 120 Building Materials & Environmental Impact (3)
- CON 157 National Center for CON Education & Research Core (5)
- Con 158 National Center for CON Education & Research Carpentry (6)

For more information on Career Start, visit ppcc.edu/Career-Start,
or call 719.502.3111.

The courses listed may not be an all-inclusive list of college credit opportunities nor may all courses be offered each year.

Course descriptions, certificates, and degree options can be found in the PPCC Catalog. Students must meet course prerequisites. For more information, visit ppcc.edu.