

Political Science Tested / Experience Rubric

An instructor with a Master's degree, including a minimum of 9 credit hours of graduate work in Political Science and a minimum of 9 total points from the rubric below could qualify to teach PSC 1011 for Concurrent Enrollment Courses consistent with PPSC guidelines and procedures.

Tested Experience	0	1	2	3
Graduate coursework with a strong Political Science emphasis	At least 9 credits of Political Science graduate work is required.	15 credits	18 credits	More than 18 credits
Post-secondary Political Science/American Government teaching experience	None	1 semester	1 year	2 or more years
Post-secondary teaching experience	None	1 year	2 years	3 + years
Secondary teaching experience	None	3 years	4 years	5 + years
Graduate Coursework in Political Science methodology and specific discipline training	None	3 credit hours	6 credit hours	More than 6 credit hours
Graduate Coursework in Political Science focusing on political theory	None	6 credit hours	9 credit hours	12 or more credit hours
Graduate Coursework in Political Science focusing on political theory	None	1 Course	2-3 Courses	More than 3 courses
Presentations given at a Political Science Conference	None	Presentations at a graduate student only conference	1 presentation at a full political science conference	2 or more presentations at a full political science conference
Scholarly publications in the field of Political Science, or related field (publications must be peer reviewed and issued by a recognized press or publishing house)	None	Evidence of submission with peer-review responses	1 publication	2 or more publications
Documented completion of training/continued education in androgogy.	None	6 hours training	12 hours training	more than 12 hours training
Attendance at a Political Science Conferences	None	1 to 2 conferences attended	3 to 5 conferences attended	6 or more conferences attended

