PIKES PEAK

COMMUNITY COLLEGE

We Get You

The instructors, counselors and advisors at Pikes Peak Community College understand the challenges of transitioning from military to civilian life because that's why we formed the college in the first place.

In fact, in 1976, Fort Carson sold us the land for our Centennial Campus for $1 to help us develop an institution that would provide transitioning soldiers with the technical and vocational skills to enter the workforce.

Over the past four decades, Pikes Peak has expanded on that mission, helping our active duty, veterans and their family members make the most of their military benefits and attain a quality, affordable education — the foundation for thousands of careers.

“Pikes Peak Community College does a great job of helping veterans make that transition.”

— Ty Upshaw *former Student Government President,
Army veteran, business grad, recent UCCS transfer and future jazz club owner.*

PEAK FACT:

MILITARY & VETERANS Center of Excellence

PEAK FACT:

We serve the largest veteran population in Colorado, and nearly 3,000 veterans per year attend the college.

At PPCC, It's Personal

We have a dedicated Military and Veterans Center of Excellence where our specialized advisors and counselors are trained in veterans issues. They can walk you through your VA Education benefits along with other military funding opportunities for both service members and family.

Small class sizes.

With an average class size of 16, the college can treat each student as an individual, understanding how you learn best and taking a team approach to your success.

Flexibility Is Key

With three campuses and Learning Centers on Fort Carson Army Post and Peterson Air Force Base, you can take general education classes in compressed formats. We also provide full-service offices on-site that will help you with your application, advising, registration, placement testing and credit for prior learning in addition to helping with tuition assistance.

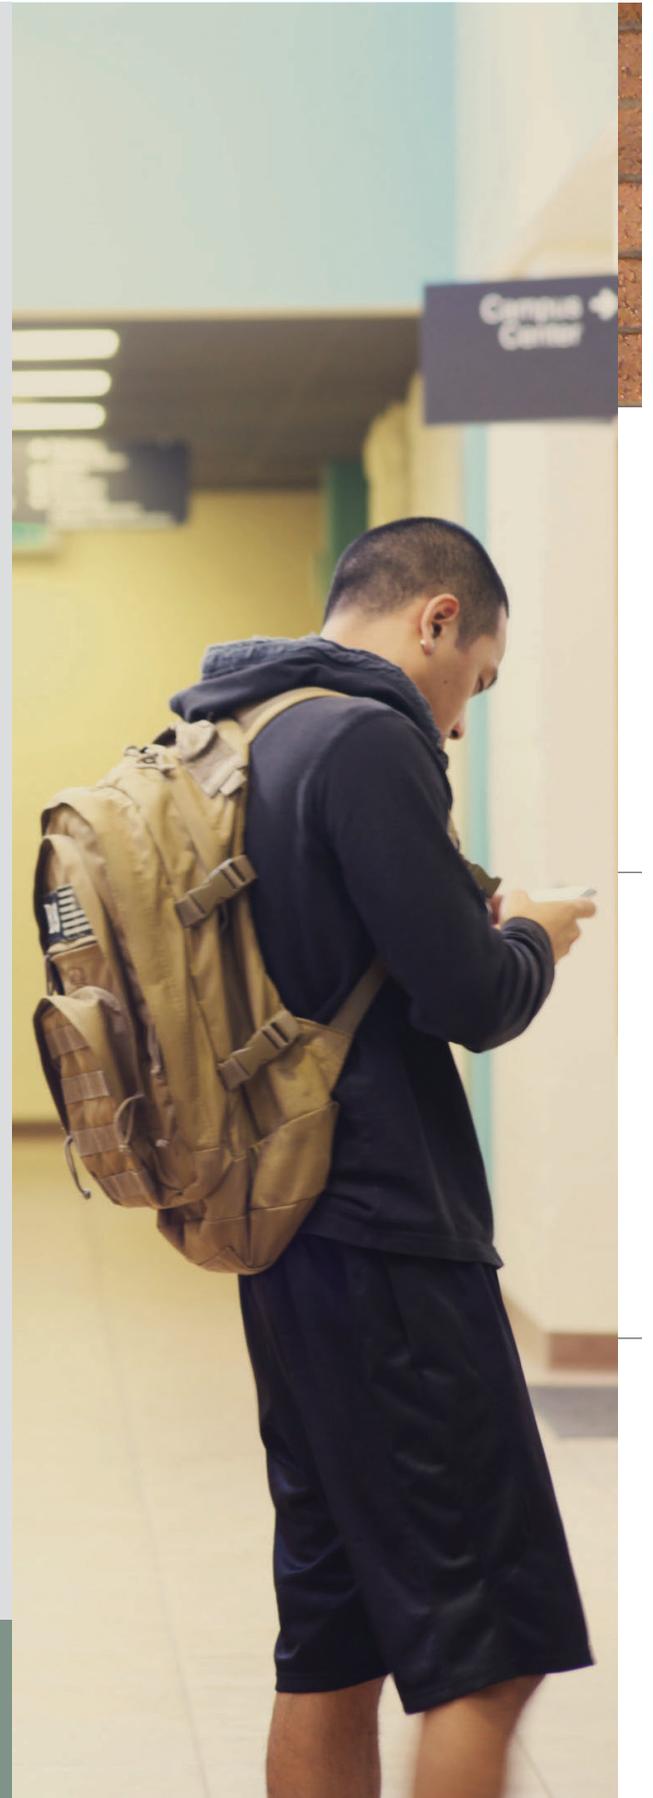

Life can be complicated.

That's why we offer maximum flexibility, with day, evening and weekend courses in traditional, online or hybrid formats.
