

Behavioral Health

Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences

Average Salary: $60,001*

Do you want to make a difference by understanding and supporting others?

If you're passionate about helping people and improving mental well-being, a Behavioral Health degree from Pikes Peak State College prepares you for meaningful careers in counseling, social work, and community advocacy and can expedite your launch into the industry.

Learn More

Program Options:

The Behavioral Health program at Pikes Peak State has a variety of degrees and certificates and emphasis areas for you to choose from. You can earn industry-recognized certificates as you work toward your Associate of Applied Science (AAS). After just one semester in the mental health and social work track, and after two semesters in the addiction recovery track, you will be able to enter the industry. The best part? PPSC now offers a Bachelor of Applied Science (BAS) in Behavioral Health, so you don't have to transfer to earn your bachelor's degree.

- Behavioral Health, BAS
- Behavioral Health, AAS
- Addiction Recovery Assistant Certificate
- Behavioral Health Assistant - Qualified BHA Certificate
- Behavioral Health Assistant II Certificate
- Behavioral Health Plus (Supplement) Certificate
- Patient Navigator Certificate

*Average Salary is calculated based on combination of all relevant occupations tied to the career, using the 50th percentile of workers (50% of employees make this salary or less). This data is updated regularly by Lightcast®.

Find your path.

We are here to help!

admissions@pikespeak.edu

719-502-2000 | pikespeak.edu/enroll