

Journalism

Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences

Average Salary: $49,086*

Want to tell stories that inform,
inspire, and make a difference?

With a Journalism degree from Pikes Peak State College, you'll learn to report, write, and create content that captures the world's attention and brings important stories to life.

Learn More

Program Options:

In today's world, storytelling helps us understand history and culture. Begin your journalism career and help shape the story! You can earn

- Journalism, AA

Career Outlook:

At Pikes Peak State, you'll gain hands-on experience in mass communication, from digital news and social media to traditional print. Plus, you'll develop expertise in areas like business, science, and the arts.

Degree with Designation:

The Degree with Designation is designed to allow you to graduate from a Colorado community college with a 60-credit Associate of Arts (AA) or Associate of Science (AS) degree, enroll with junior status at a Colorado university and complete a bachelor's degree in no more than an additional 60 credits (for a total of 120 credits).

For more information on transferring after PPSC,
Visit » pikespeak.edu/transfer

*Average Salary is calculated based on combination of all relevant occupations tied to the career, using the 50th percentile of workers (50% of employees make this salary or less). This data is updated regularly by Lightcast®.

Find your path.

We are here to help!

admissions@pikespeak.edu

719-502-2000 | pikespeak.edu/enroll