

Broadcasting & Electronic Media

Technical and Professional Studies

Average Salary: $49,177*

Are you passionate about storytelling and creating compelling content?

Pikes Peak State's Broadcasting and Electronic Media program will equip you to share the stories that mean the most to you.

Learn More

Program Options:

Pikes Peak State offers an Associate of Applied Science (AAS) to help you break into the industry, as you earn stackable credentials along the way. With Pikes Peak State's own radio and television station, you'll gain real-world experience. You can earn

- Broadcasting and Electronic Media, AAS
- Basic Radio Production Certificate
- Basic Television Production Certificate
- Advanced Radio Production & Operations Certificate
- Advanced Television & Video Production Certificate

*Average Salary is calculated based on combination of all relevant occupations tied to the career, using the 50th percentile of workers (50% of employees make this salary or less). This data is updated regularly by Lightcast®.

Find your path.

We are here to help!

admissions@pikespeak.edu

719-502-2000 | pikespeak.edu/enroll