

Sign Language Interpreter Preparation

Technical and Professional Studies

Average Salary: $74,528*

Do you want to help the Deaf and hard of hearing community?

Pikes Peak State's Sign Language Interpreter Preparation program teaches you the skills and ethics you need to work with people with hearing disabilities.

Learn More

Program Options:

We help you succeed as a new professional, following Deaf culture expectations, ethics, and best practices. You'll work with the Deaf community, native ASL users, and certified interpreters in different industries, community settings and schools. In Pikes Peak State's Sign Language Interpreter Preparation program, you can earn

- Sign Language Interpreter Preparation, AAS
- Basic ASL Communication Skills Certificate

Career Outlook:

Upon graduation from PPSC, students can work as pre-certified sign language interpreter in a variety of settings, including

- Community interpreting
- Post-secondary Education
- K-12 Education

*Average Salary is calculated based on combination of all relevant occupations tied to the career, using the 50th percentile of workers (50% of employees make this salary or less). This data is updated regularly by Lightcast®.

Find your path.

We are here to help!

admissions@pikespeak.edu

719-502-2000 | pikespeak.edu/enroll