

APEAL

Appeal for Financial Aid Eligibility Qualitative Measurement

Cumulative GPA below 2.0 – cu	Qualitative Mo mulative completion rate below 67%	- completely failed or withdrew from previous semester
*an electronic version of this form is	available at www.pikespeak.edu/appe	al
Student S#	Student Name
Eligibility" link under your course	es. Follow the instructions to complete	select the "Understanding Your Financial Aid the required module and quiz. You must complete the appleted, print out the completion certificate it provides you
Type a statement explaining, in de requirement.	etail, the extenuating circumstances the	at prevented you from meeting the qualitative measuremen
We want to know:
What happened in all previous unHow have these previous issues bWhat is your plan to ensure you a
3. Indicate the # of credits you plan to	enroll in the next time you enroll for	· courses
4. CIRCLE the semester for which yo	ou are appealing to re-instate your find	ancial aid - your next enrollment period
FALL (August – December)	SPRING (January – May)	SUMMER (May – August)
*		porting documentation of extenuating circumstances to this email to financialaid@pikespeak.edu . Incomplete appeals
Examples of acceptable "official" sup	oporting documentation:
Medical Documentation Form (pleas	e use this form and do not send your o	confidential medical records)
Court documents
Police records
Counselor statements on official lette	rhead
Notarized 3 rd -party statements Death certificates
Deam certificates

Deadline to appeal is 5 business days before the published census (drop) date. Appeals submitted without documentation or missing proper signatures will be denied. You will be notified via your school-assigned email account with the results of your appeal. If your appeal is granted, your applicable aid will be reinstated. If your appeal is denied, your aid will be canceled. Other conditions may apply to your approved or denied appeal.